

HEMINGWAY'S BREWERY

CAIRNS WHARF

Where it all began...

Two mates drifted into port after a long, sun drenched stint on the reef. Parched and weary, but still buzzing from an unforgettable time in paradise, all they needed to complete this perfect day was to reminisce over a top-notch local brew or two.

And this is where the story really begins...

Like a marlin striking skirted lure, it suddenly hit them. Their piece of paradise was without a beer they could proudly call their own, or a place to drink it for that matter.

Being true journeymen, they decided right then and there to embark on their next great adventure - to open a brewery that reflected their love of the area.

Perhaps it was an overdose of vitamin D speaking or simply a moment of clarity, either way, their grand idea to build Hemingway's Brewery, Port Douglas and Cairns Wharf was born.

Now, in one of the world's most unspoiled, untouched and untapped destinations, their spirit of adventure and passion for beers with a story have been brought to life.
